How Green Was Our Valley?

A decadent government holds back the community. Progress does not wait. It is essentially the element of time and so we are over 100 years old. The town has been here a long time. Its government has not changed. Neither has its methods of doing business changed. So we keep it like it is. Each two years we fight to keep it the same. On off political years we have no primary so that 3 members of the council automatically succeed themselves. That keeps it like it is. Some of the results of doing business as usual are reflected in the survey made by the Planning Board in 1945.

Looking up from the depths of the fox holes we say no greater need exists in our city to-day. Looking down the fox holes some say these streets are good enough. Some may have wept when we took down the horse trough to lay the only paving we have.

The Planning Board commented upon a 14 year record of expenditures for street maintenance, from 1931 to 1944 the city paid out $73,201.12 for keeping things like they are. "We submit that this amount, or any substantial portion of it, if properly applied would have brought us many blocks of permanent type of street paving," said the board report. The Planning Board report went on to say that "we do not dismiss the need for a reasonable maintenance of streets, but we call your attention to the record of your city which discloses that in 1931 the expenditure was $5726.11 whereas in 1933 it was only $2624.21. The city has the same system of streets it had 20 years ago with limited exceptions. The lowest expenditure was in 1934 when maintenance of streets cost $2582.04. In 1935 it was two times as large and by 1938 was more than $7000.00. In the year 1944 the city spent $10,121.45 for maintenance of streets. If present costs are reduced one half or preferably two thirds the city will recover $6747.64 each year and leave $3373.81 for street maintenance.

The Planning Board report continued: "If such a policy were instituted and using the 1944 figure spent on streets the city would conserve $134,952.80 in 20 years. At current money prices one hundred thousand dollars in street paving bonds could be paid for in 20 years by such an economy in your street fund alone."

In 1945 the city spent over $13,000.00 in the street department alone.

In 1946 the city spent $16,781.64 in the street department. It is now estimated the amount will be around $20,000.00 for 1947. Did the city council at that time or since give any serious consideration to these plans or for that matter, did they think at all? Of course the answer is very obvious. How green was our valley?

HENRY G. LEHMAN IS SEEKING RE-ELECTION

Henry G. Lehman, Representative of the 65th Floterial District composed of Milam, Burleson and Lee Counties authorized the Herald to announce that he would be a candidate for re-election and his formal announcement will be made at a later date.

Mr. Lehman stated that in all probability the office that he now holds will be cut out, meaning that the 65th Floterial District will be represented one more term. The Legislature failed to divide the Representative Districts over the state so the people over Texas are going to vote on a Constitutional Amendment in November which will create a Redistricting Board to be appointed by the Governor to divide the state into new Districts. The constitutional amendment he said will more than likely be passed.

Mr. Lehman says that he feels the past experience, knowledge, and understanding that he has of the three counties which he has represented will better qualify him to serve the people to their advantage during the last two years of this Legislative District.

A. J. Gunnels Home At Marak Damaged Fire

Neighbors have been kind enough to give Mr. and Mrs. Gunnels some household goods. Friends in Cameron who feel like doing so should help Mr. and Mrs. Gunnels.

He is the son of A. J. Gunnels, Sr., of Hanover.

LONG IS VICTOR IN LOUISIANA WALLACE HITS MARSHALL PLAN

CARR P. COLLINS IS CC SPEAKER

BROTHER LATE KINGFISH TAKES OVER STATE SOON

Earl K. Long won the nomination for Governor in Louisiana by a large majority Tuesday over Sam Houston Jones.

Jones conceded defeat at 11 p. m. Tuesday.

Long led in the first primary and as the returns came in late Tuesday there was never any doubt of the results.

The campaign extended into a run off from the January primary was a bitter one. Sam Jones is a former Governor of Louisiana and won the election over the Huey P. Long machine that controlled the state for a decade or more. Former Governor Leche who was Lieutenant Governor under Huey P. Long was forced to resign when the bubble burst. Earl K. Long then became governor for a short time.

Huey P. Long who went to the U. S. Senate was felled by bullets in the capitol he built at Baton Rouge.

Earl K. Long, a homespun campaigner, was charged with income tax evasion, gambling support and graft in various phases, but Louisiana had forgotten the horrors of the late 1920's.

JESTER JOINS GROUP OPPOSING PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—A group of Southern governors to-night called on "Democrats everywhere to join the revolt against President Truman's civil rights program."

Declaring that the South is no longer "in the bag" for the Democratic party, they said "strong and effective" action is needed to "save" the party and to "preserve American democracy."

The call was issued by the governors of North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas and Arkansas after they and Gov. W. Preston Lane, Jr., of Maryland held a showdown session with Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath.

McGrath gave a flat "no" to their request that he work for withdrawal of Mr. Truman's anti-discrimination proposals.

They also asked McGrath—and he refused—to back restoration of the "two-thirds rule" which would give the South a veto in the choice of a Presidential candidate by this year's Democratic national convention.

"The Southern states," the governors said, are aroused and the present leadership of the Democratic party will soon realize that the South is no longer "in the bag".

NEW FACE NEEDED IN WHITE HOUSE HE SAYS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—Henry A. Wallace charged today that "big bankers, the monopolists and the militarists" have turned the Marshall plan into "a blueprint for war" and a "political and economic weapon against the American people."

"New faces" must be in the White House, Wallace said, before "an understanding between the United States and Russia" can make peace secure.

And the third party presidential candidate left no doubt that one of the faces he had in mind was his own.

Wallace testified at his own request in flat opposition to Secretary of State Marshall's European recovery program. He told the house foreign affairs committee it means "suppressing" the people of Europe and lowering living standards at home.

Wallace wore a neat grey suit, and his cowlid dangled over one eye as usual, in this first formal Washington appearance since President Truman fired him from the cabinet in 1946.

Speaking with vigor and enthusiasm, he outlined his own eight-point plan for European recovery—a 10-year, $50,000,000,000 United Nations program taking in countries in the Soviet sphere as well as western Europe.

He called for putting the industrial Ruhr under joint control of the U. S., Russia, Britain and France, and for creation of a "world food granary" to "win the world fight against hunger."

UPSWING IS NOTED IN BUILDING IN CAMERON

Building permits in the city of Cameron during the month of January totaled $18,180.00 it was announced late Thursday by W. H. Stafford, city Secretary.

Comparable figures for January 1947 were not available but it was believed the January 1948 figure may be higher.

Total permits for 1947 were $207,919.00.

Those who are closely allied with the building trades believe that 1948 will be a banner year on construction here if materials are available and prices are to follow the downward trends on other commodities. Building materials have declined to some extent and may not be reduced in the same proportion as some other materials.

Generally building has been retarded because of the scarcity of materials. Cameron is growing in the residence sections but lagging in business construction. Business buildings are in great demand.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shelfer and son of Houston attended the funeral of Joe Earl Tate on Friday.

The banquet will be held in the basement of the Methodist Church. The women of the church will serve the banquet.

Tickets for the banquet have been printed and will be placed on sale here early next week, it was announced by Albert Collins, publicity chairman.

G. Lippman, Nephew Of Henry Lippman, Is Gridiron Sensation

Glenn Lippman, nephew of Henry Lippman of Cameron one of the best football prospects this year, is going to A&M College.

Here is an interesting story which football fans here will be happy to read, especially the Aggies:

Morris Frank had the following in his column in the Houston Post Friday morning:

"We all know about the virtues of brotherly love of course, but I sure ran across a literal demonstration of it in sports Thursday.

"It concerns Brothers Bully and Claude Gilstrap—and one Glenn Lippman, the El Campo scoring machine who this coming Fall is entering the portals of Texas A&M College.

"The inimitable Bully Gilstrap, of course, is a member of the Texas University coaching staff.

"His brother, Claude, is now coach at Cleburne High School.

"But Claude Gilstrap formerly coached at Wharton, which is the same district as El Campo. And that's where Glenn Lippman came in—and Claude Gilstrap went out.

"For the popular Claude had some stout football teams at Wharton. And he'd come along fine until he'd meet El Campo and Lippman.

"Bang—there would go Lippman with that ball—and down would go Claude Gilstrap's Wharton Tigers.

"Finally, Claude Gilstrap decided it this way: 'If that Lippman isn't going to move, I am,' he said. And he hied to Cleburne far away from Lippman's heels.

"Wednesday the story was released that Glenn Lippman was going to A&M.

"And Thursday we had a call from Cleburne from our old friend, Claude Gilstrap.

"Say, Claude said, I want to send the word out to Ole Bully. Tell him that Lippman ran me out of Wharton and if he runs Bully out of Texas University a few Thanksgivings from now that there's some good farm land around here we can both work'.

"And if that's not brotherly love, brthors, what is?

"There has been many a glowing story told of Lippman's ability to pack that pigskin but nobody can tell it as feelingly as Claude Gilstrap.

"When asked if he had seen anybody up in that part of the State who could lug that leather like Lippman, Claude said:

"There is a great back up here in our district Stollenwerck with Waxahachie. Well, he's good, all right, but on a real good day, he might be able to lace Lippman's shoes'.

"A&M, from all accounts, has bagged the entire trio of the sought El Campo stars, Lippman; Elo Nohavitz, the classy guard; and Jaro Netardus, the 195-pound speedy fullback.

"Nohavitz is reported headed for Aggie land, and Thursday Jaro Netardus Sr., El Campo druggist and father of the fullback, said definitely his son would enter Aggie land this fall.

"Netardus last Fall made one El Campo fan in particular prove a prophet.

"In the game against Wharton, this enthusiastic El Campo follower made a friendly wager with a Wharton backer that El Campo would score the first time they got the ball. And Netardus proceeded to take the opening kickoff and run it back 100 yards for a touchdown.

"I've lost bets before, the Wharton rooter gasped, 'but never any as quickly and painlessly as that one'.

John Krotachvil was in Cameron Saturday and re-subscribed to The Herald.

SCORES RE-ACTION AT JACKSON DAY DINNER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Truman called on his party tonight to battle against "re-actionary conservatism" and the "privileged few" in the coming elections.

"This is a year of challenge," he said. "I propose that we meet that challenge head-on.

"The people will again decide whether they want the forces of positive, progressive liberalism to continue in office, or whether, in these challenging times, they want to entrust their government to those forces of conservatism which believe in the benefit of the few at the expense of the many."

The President spoke at a Jefferson-Jackson day dinner.

He avoided any direct reference to dissatisfied elements in his party. Neither did he mention the Republican party or any of its presidential nomination contenders by name.

But, in an apparent slap at Republicans in congress, he denounced criticism of his ten-year social improvement program outlined his January legislative message.

He called them "timid," "defeatists," "backward-looking," and "men of small vision and faint hearts."

"The timid people say that this can't be done," he said referring to his program for improving social security and justice, production, education and housing.

"I know that it can be done," he declared repeatedly, "and we of the forward-looking faith must dedicate ourselves to the proposition that it will be done."

reliable and trustworthy in ever sense.

Mr. Vaughan is a native of Milam county, was educated in the Rogers High School and in the Army schools while qualifying for his Commission as a pilot. His experience in the years of his war service and since his discharge, his friends point out, give him qualifications far beyond the average aspirant for public office to perform the duties required as District Clerk.

In making his announcement, Mr. Vaughan feels he should pledge the people something in exchange for the confidence they are called upon to invest in their District Clerk. The duties of this office are very important in relation to the court, the bar and the public in general. To give the kind of service he conceives is incumbent upon one who holds this office, will require close attention to duty, staying on the job, and constantly improving his store of information.

Like thousands of young men who came back from the war with family responsibilities and the necessity to get started on the business of recovering for lost time, Mr. Vaughan came back to his home county and engaged in a small business. He feels that his increasing need justifies his asking for this office but not without offering qualifications which he believes are the first demand the people should make of any office holder.

Mr. Vaughan hopes to see each voter but if this is impossible he takes this method of asking for your vote and support in the coming Primary election. He plans as active campaign as circumstances and time will permit and will greatly appreciate the help of his friends and all who feel he is both qualified and deserving.

Mr. Vaughan is a member of the Walkers Creek Baptist Church, and of Edwin Hardy Post American Legion at Cameron.

Convenient Small Home

Note how convenient this small home is to live in, the ease of movement from one area to another, the spacious living-dining space with view front and rear. Radiant hot water floor heating with pipe coils buried in the concrete provides a new comfort in living as gentle as the warmth of a spring day. Cold floors and drafts are eliminated, and housekeeping is reduced to a minimum—radiant heating is clean. It comprises 1086 square feet, excluding garage.

Dwelling shown above is a photograph of a scale model of a "cut-out" home which can be obtained from House Beautiful Magazine for $2.00. The model is easily assembled, and gives the prospective home builder an actual model of the home he plans to build, complete with "cut-out" furniture. By studying the scale model, the prospective builder is enabled to determine what changes he deems necessary before the house is actually built, thereby saving needless expense.

Assault Is Retired After Failure In Widener Race

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 22—Assault, the clubfooted "Cinderella" of the thoroughbred racing world, is to be retired effective immediately.

Robert J. Kleberg, owner of the champion which has earned $626,620 to become the third ranking money earning race horse in the world, said Assault will be shipped to Kentucky "for at least a year."

Thus the racing career of a horse that wouldn't let a crippled foot interfere comes to an end.

His last race was Saturday when he ran fifth in the $50,000 Widener classic at Hialeach, four lengths behind his arch rival, Calumet farm's Armed.

Kleberg said Assault, which won triple crown honors in 1946, burst an osslet, a growth of the horse's ankle peculiar to racing thoroughbreds, in the race Saturday.

Assault's future as a champion race horse was nearly ended in 1943 when he stepped on a surveyor's stake on a Texas ranch. The stake, which drove into the right forefoot, caused a permanent injury which made it necessary to wear a specially-made built up shoe.

The malformation has caused him to be called the "club-footed comet" and the "Cinderella of the turf."

In 1946 he developed a kidney ailment which threatened to cut short his racing career. But this too was overcome and he went on to be voted the "horse of the year" in 1946.

Twice last year Assault was the world's leading money earning thoroughbred. It was the same year that the title changed six times, juggling between Stymie, now the number one, Armed, number two and Assault.

A splint on the left fore leg was blamed for his poor showing in a $100,000 match race with Armed last year at Belmont park. Assault ran six lengths behind the golden gelding.

The firing iron was applied to the splint and after a long rest in Columbia, S. C., Assault was shipped here this winter to run in the Widener.

His initial 1948 appearance was a success. He won an overnight event in a photo finish with Rampart.

REVOLT OVER TRUMAN CIVIL RIGHTS STAND

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—Rebellious Dixie Democrats marshalled forces today for a fight "to the finish" against the administration's civil rights program.

Congressional delegates from 11 southern states formally declared war on President Truman's anti-lynch, anti-poll tax and anti-segregation legislation.

The opening engagement in the intra-party battle is set for Monday.

Sixteen representatives of the south—five governors and 11 congressmen—will then lay their angry protests before national party chairman Howard McGrath.

Monday's conference will bring to a climax a swelling tide of revolt. Organization of the congressional group was in answer to a plea of support from the southern governors' conference Feb. 8. At that time the governors served a 40-day ultimatum on the national party headquarters to abandon the proposals.

Rep. Colmer of Mississippi, chairman of the Capitol Hill group, announced that the 50-odd congressmen unanimously adopted a resolution to support the southern governors.

ULTIMATUM IS READY FOR ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22—Five Southern Governors announced tonight they had reached agreement on the civil rights "presentation" they will make tomorrow to Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath.

Governor J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina said the Governors were in "a fighting mood" following a two-hour session at the Mayflower Hotel here.

He said the Southern Democrats "really mean business" in their demands that President Truman ease up on his civil rights campaign, and said the Governors aimed to get "party peace or else."

The "or else," it appeared, meant carrying out the Southerners' threat to withhold their Presidential electors in the 1948 election with the aim of throwing the election into the House of Representatives.

Thurmond is chairman of the five-man delegation sent here by the Southern Governors' Conference which recently voted a 40-day "cooling-off" period. The group is scheduled to meet McGrath tomorrow afternoon.

COLD FRONT DUE TO REACH HERE TUESDAY

Central Texas weather will be much cooler by Tuesday with a possible cold front which was due early Monday.

A warm mass of air swept inword from the Gulf late Sunday to spread a mass of fog and cloud over a majority of Texas and a cold spell was due to clear up the skies and temperature would be in the lower thirties by Tuesday or Wednesday.

Rain was reported over a large section of south and east Texas Monday morning. The weather in Cameron was cold due to a nasty east wind which brought dampness and some rain. Winter may last for several weeks, according to the government forecast.

Mrs. J. P. Fuller is a patient in the St. Edwards Hospital. She is improving rapidly.

Formula For Insect Control on Fruit Trees Recommended

Fruit trees must be protected from insects and diseases before a good crop can be produced. The orchard owner who follows a complete spray schedule will protect his trees and at the same time assure a crop of fruit of highest quality.

The following recommendations are made to control insects and diseases of peaches and plums:

Spray No. 1 (Dormant or winter spray) Commercial oil emulsion, at 3 per cent strength, is recommended. The oil should be mixed with water according to manufacturer's directions.

Spray No. 2 (Delayed dormant spray) just before bud swells, liquid lime sulphur 3 gallons or dry lime sulphur 8 pounds per 50 gallons of water.

Spray No. 3 (when one-half to two-thirds of blossoms or petals have fallen)

This is first worm spray—Use 4 pounds hydrated lime, 2 pounds zinc sulphate, 3 pounds wettable sulphur, one pound lead arsenate per 50 gallons of water.

Spray No. 4 Same as spray No. 3, but 10 to 14 days later.

Spray No. 5 Same as No. 3 and 4, but 10 to 14 days after spray No. 4.

Spray No. 6 (for brown rot and scab, 30 days before peaches ripen) Three pounds of wettable sulphur per 50 gallons of water. If rains come in June or July another sulphur spray will be needed.

If the orchard owner desires further information, he is urged to see his Vocational teacher or County Agent.

Buffleheads on Migratory Bird Stamps

Three buffle-head ducks will be featured on the 1948 migratory bird hunting stamps, the government announced Sunday night.

Bufflehead ducks are called bufflehead ducks because, in the male, the head is buffed—that is, it looks a lot bigger than it really is because of an extra lot of plumage.

The stamp will show one female and two male buffleheads in flight. All migratory waterfowl hunters over 16 are required to purchase a stamp.

Bufflehead, applied to person, means "stupid."

'Sissy' Rebels, Slays Chum, 11, Admits Crime

Garroted Boy With Leather Belt; Tells FBI How He Planned Deed.

NEWARK, N. J.—A 14-year-old parochial school student was accused of slaying an 11-year-old companion. The FBI said the youth admitted garrotting his pal with a leather belt in an abandoned warehouse because he wanted to prove himself "no sissy."

The FBI said the boy, Walter Smigelski, signed a statement telling how he planned to kill someone to assert his superiority in the face of his mother's continual demands that he wash dishes, dust furniture and do assorted household chores.

The body of the younger boy, John Preston Jr. of Kearny, was found in an old warehouse, in nearby Harrison, a leather belt tightened about his neck and several gashes on his chest and wrist.

The statement quoted Smigelski as saying he selected the Preston boy as his victim because he was certain he was weaker than himself and could be subdued easily.

The FBI said the boy admitted the slaying after he had been brought to headquarters here by his father, Walter Smigelski, a lathe operator, whose suspicions had been aroused by a copy of a kidnap ransom note found by Mrs. Smigelski in the pocket in one of the boy's trousers.

Demands $1,000.

A similar note, crudely scrawled and asking $1,000 ransom, had been received by the victim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Preston Sr., in the mail some 12 hours after the boy was reported missing.

"If you want your son back alive you get 1,000 one thous.," the note said.

"Bring a clean shirt, pants, shoes underwear and a good supporter a small one that will fit him tight he has a slight case of rupture we did it he'll have worst if you don't do as we say don't trust anyone wrap everything nice in a paper bag the 1,000 and clothes you see a boy stand on First st. and Sussex st. there will be a boy there he'll know nothing he just a hired boy do ask any questions give it to him don't go to the police or we'll kill him just do as we say cross up (two 'scrambled lines followed, crossed out and illegible) one of these five words and you have his body for nothing."

"Don't ask the boy any question and give it to him at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon four bells p. m. and you have Jackie back at six p. m. no funny stuff."

On the other side of the paper was the following: "You know the byby shirt is just an underwear shirt. Do as we say or else."

Father Accuses.

The father of the Smigelski boy said he waited for his son as he came out of church and confronted him with the kidnap note found by his mother. The boy told conflicting stories, police said the father told them. As a result the father took the boy with him to FBI headquarters here.

S. K. McKee, New Jersey FBI chief, said the boy first insisted he met a masked man who asked that he help in the kidnaping of the Preston boy. The youth broke down under questioning, however, and told the story of his long resentment over household chores and his plan to prove that he was no sissy.

60-Year-Old Man Is Free

After 20 Years in Asylum

TRENTON, N. J.—Tall, dignified 60-year-old Raymond Reid, described by a chancery court judge as trying to portray the spirit of Christ as female as well as male, has been freed from a state mental hospital.

He had been confined for 20 years until his recent release.

Reid walked calmly out the main gate, kissed his 83-year-old mother who had obtained the court order for his freedom, and said his only feeling concerning his confinement was that of "hating a great evil like Abe Lincoln hated slavery."

Reid had been committed to the hospital in 1927 as a "paranoiac" after being arrested for writing what the prosecution described as a series of threatening letters to 125 state officials.

Throughout the period of his confinement, he sent other letters to state officials protesting that he was being persecuted for his beliefs.

Desire for Revenge Leads To Murder of Housewife

ST. LOUIS.—The desire for vengeance that drove Edwin Linders to murder a suburban housewife was revealed to be based on a mistaken belief.

The body of Edwin Linders Sr., exhumed for chemical analysis to check Linders' story that his father was poisoned by Mrs. Grace McAndrew, showed no traces of poison.

The conviction that his father was poisoned was given by Linders as a reason why he shot Mrs. McAndrew to death in her Kirkwood home. He is being held pending trial for murder.

Home Demonstration Club Meeting Held Wednesday Feb. 4

The Hoyte Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. H. N. Tate on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 4.

These club funds are contributed to the American Red Cross, Community Chest and used in the work and promotion of 4-H club work. Each member gives 15c each year to the T. H. D. A. Fund. This fund helps some 4-H Club girl through college and some is donated to orphanages.

After the meeting the club honored Mrs. Coward with a surprise miscellaneous shower as a reward for her earnest and faithful services as the club's secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Coward was the recipient of a large tray of lovely gifts.

Please DON'T MAKE CHAIN CALLS on Party Lines

Did you have trouble reading that headline?

There's a reason. There are no spaces between the words "Don't Make Chain Calls."

"Chain" calls cause trouble on party lines. Other folks on the line can't make calls, and no one can call in while the "chain caller" goes down his list. If you have a party line and have a number of calls to make, the friendly, neighborly thing to do is allow...a...little...time between calls. That gives others on the line a chance to call or be called.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Where Does Your Money Go?

Read the other day where country folks and farmers spend more money, proportionately, on their homes than city dwellers do.

Doesn't seem hard to believe when you think it over. Take the folks in our town, for instance: They're home-loving people—who'd rather spend an evening by the fire with a mellow glass of beer than go out in search of entertainment or diversion.

So it's only natural they put more into what means most to them and to their children: their homes. They may not have too much to spend—but it goes for those permanent, abiding comforts that make home a nicer place to be.

And from where I sit, that budget calls for some of the niceties of home life too—like cider and popcorn for the kids from time to time, and a friendly glass of beer for Mom and Dad... things that belong with what we mean when we say "Home."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 29.

The Golden Text is: "Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever" (Psalms 45:2).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles" (Isaiah 42:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus is the name of the man who, more than all other men, has presented Christ, the true idea of God, healing the sick and the sinning and destroying the power of death" (page 473).

Mr. and Mrs. Erle Adrian and family of Temple spent the week end in the home of Mrs. Mary V. Posey of Cameron.

"Cry Wolf" Brings Flynn and Stanwyck Together First Time

Two of filmdom's leading romantic stars are thrillingly together for the first time in their notable screen careers in "Cry Wolf," Warner Bros.' forthcoming drama of adventure and romance that opens at the Cameron Theatre Thursday. They are Errol Flynn, dashing star of memorable action films like "Robin Hood" and "Captain Blood," and Barbara Stanwyck, whose consistently outstanding portrayals in both drama and comedy have made her one of the most sought-after feminine stars in Hollywood today.

Both stars have appeared often in the past in pictures on Warner lot, where Flynn has been under contract ever since he came to this country more than ten years ago and, when mail started coming in from the fans asking that the two be paired, Executive Producer Jack L. Warner lent an ear and soon found the right vehicle in "Cry Wolf," Marjorie Carleton's popular novel of suspense. The result is a highly adventurous screenplay, adapted by Catherine Turney, with overtones of mystery and romance.

Like the novel, Warners screen version of "Cry Wolf" tells the story of Sandra Demarest (Barbara Stanwyck) whose young husband, Jim (Richard Basehart) is believed dead. When Sandra arrives at the family's vast and mysterious Massachusetts country estate, she is greeted with open hostility by Jim's uncle Mark (Carrol Flynn), lone executor and guardian of Jim's trust. The eerie dangers which both face throughout the film provide a suspenseful background against which the stars play out their deeply moving romance.

The competent supporting cast includes, besides those mentioned above, screen newcomer Geraldine Brooks who plays the important role of Jim's oversensitive and highly suggestive young sister; Jerome Cowan as Flynn's righteously respectable brother; and John Ridgely as a brooding caretaker.

For the benefit of the new members and those who missed it at that time, an old rocker which first had the old cushion and springs removed, the old varnish taken off and then refinished. Webbing and springs were put in and tied securely. This was covered with ducking, then padded with moss and layer of cotton and another cover of ducking. The last cover to go on was a pretty fabric in a striped design. The club ladies all agreed it will be a very comfortable, durable and pretty chair

Names and how to identify different shrubs were learned. During a brief business session it was decided the club would sponsor a community party Friday, March 5.

At noon lunch was spread with many different good things to eat. Nine members and the agents were present for this meeting.

4 MILLION HOSPITAL FOR VETERANS OKEYED

Marlin has a good congressman. Construction of a 4 million dollar Veterans Administration hospital may begin there in 30 days. The President late Thursday authorized the project as Congressman Poage and Senator Tom Connally saw the chief executive.

The progressive people of Marlin put up 30 thousand dollars for the site and utilities. The hospital will be a 200 bed institution. This new hospital is being built as many other hospitals are being discontinued but medicinal waters at Marlin plus the Senator Connally and Congressman Poage influence brings this great outlay to central Texas.

Stanley Walker Writing Texas Profiles Finds Texas Paradise But Citizens Need to Be Jolted Out of Doldrums; Debunks Grandiose Behavior

Texas may be Paradise, but the Lone Star State will not achieve that status until her citizens lift themselves from the doldrums of tradition and effectively remake the social and political laws that govern them, writes Texan Stanley Walker, veteran newspaperman, in the current issue of The American Mercury.

Bursting the bubble of several common generalizations, Walker proves that the average Texan began life much the same as you and I but has been "modified" according to his peculiar environment.

In a more serious vein, the author points out, "The ordinary citizen of Texas are free to admit that they have not been fair to the Negro, that there is a good deal of wholly preposterous anti-Semitism in the state, and that on many fronts the word for Texas is 'backward'".

Walker feels that many social and political reforms are urgently needed and that the following should be placed at the top of the list:

"Texas should revise its liquor law to permit the serving of hard liquor at public bars . . . The urge of Texans, wherever found, to try to drink up all the liquor in sight (usually a manifest impossibility) stems in part from the lack of open bars in Texas.

"Texas should bring its State Constitution up to date. At almost every election, some measure is presented to the people in the form of an amendment, so that now the battered old document is a hopeless patchwork. Much-needed measures cannot be put through without much hocus-pocus and delay.

"The Texas criminal law, together with the public attitude toward crime, needs reform. As matters stand now, it is easier to get away with an atrocious homicide than the theft of a cow, a horse, or an automobile—and if convicted, the penalty is often less severe."

Walker, whose family was among Texas' early settlers, concludes, "For once I must string along with the boosters and admit that I know of no area in America which can compare with Texas in opportunity in an almost endless variety of fields—for the physician, the school teacher, the restaurant keeper, the nurse, the farmer, the technician, the newspaper publisher, and for skilled labor of every sort. They are needed, and they will be astonished at the warmth of their welcome.

"Texas a Paradise? Well, yes. A grade B Paradise, maybe, but a Paradise, nonetheless. Yippee!"

L-Shaped Dwelling

The living-dining room in this L-shaped home has great privacy and the continuous glass wall overlooking the terrace and garden extends the living into the outdoors. The entrance hall gives access to all rooms without conflict. The kitchen, utility room and garage have been designed as a convenient work and hobby center. Many built-in storage features are included throughout the plan to provide a "place for everything". It comprises 1440 square feet, excluding garage.

Dwelling shown above is a photograph of a scale model of a "cut-out" home which can be obtained from House Beautiful Magazine for $2.00. The model is easily assembled, and gives the prospective home builder an actual model of the home he plans to build, complete with "cut-out" furniture.

By studying the scale model, the prospective builder is enabled to determine what changes he deems necessary before the house is actually built, thereby saving needless expense.

HAYS BROTHERS OPEN MODEL CLEANERS HERE

Cameron has a new industry today, Model Cleaners, opened by the Hays Brothers, both war veterans.

The new plant is modern in every detail, was laid out with a super cleaning service in view, is completely equipped with soft water, air conditioned and now in operation.

D. M. Hayes and R. R. Hayes, brothers and both war veterans, have installed the new plant.

Both men are veterans of service with the navy, one in the Pacific and the other in the Atlantic.

R. R. Hayes served aboard the Gaudalcanal, a baby flat top carrier for 3 years. This ship was on anti-submarine duty in the Atlantic. It was the first American ship to capture an enemy vessel. It was a German submarine off the coast of French West Africa. In the course of his service aboard the ship Hayes took part in the capture of 5 submarines and took a total of some 125 prisoners. He was a volunteer on April 13, 1943. His service ribbon shows 2 battle stars and in addition has the Presidential Unit Citation.

D. M. Hayes spent 30 months in the Pacific and his service ribbon shows 8 battle stars. In addition he has the ship's citation for excellent service aboard. He was on the Cruiser Memphis off Mendora Island during the invasion of the Philippines when a Jap suicide pilot crashed his plane on the deck. A total of 129 officers and men were killed and 225 wounded. The Memphis was at one time the Flagship of General MacArthur. The plane crash on the deck of the Memphis occurred near Negres Island as the forces were moving in after the battle of Linguya bay.

Both young men are natives of Cameron and both are experienced in the dry cleaning industry. Their first day open on Monday was a big success.

YOEMEN WIN FIRST BASKETBALL TITLE

The following facts will be found interesting regarding the basketball champions for the district, the Yoemen.

This is the first time Cameron has ever won the title since the present Interscholastic League set up has been in progress, a total of 15 years.

After a slow start due to an extra long football season, the Yoemen finally got started and won 17, lost 7 for a percentage of 708.

Dick Young, basketball coach, was being widely praised here for his success in bringing Cameron the first Basketball championship.

The Yoemen scored 731 points, almost a point per minute and averaged 30.7 points per game for 24 games.

High scorers for Cameron are: Laurence Michalka with 285; Bobby Wilkerson with 203 and Billy Hanes with 150.

The Yoemen displayed their superiority over three other districts by defeating Marlin, Eagle Lake and Bay City in intersectional games. They won first place in two tournaments, the ones that counted, the district. They also won consolation trophy at the Brenham tournament.

This is the manner in which they performed in the district: They defeated Hearne twice, Belton 3 times, Georgetown 3 times, Rosebud twice and their arch rivals, Taylor, 4 times.

Bobby Wilkerson, tall center, made All District. Bob Holloway, T. J. O'Neill and John David Matula played great defensive ball and good floor games throughout the season.

Jester Urged To Drop Opposition To Civil Rights

Austin, Feb. 19.—A veterans' group at the University of Texas yesterday urged Gov. Beauford H. Jester to withdraw his opposition to Pres. Truman's rights program.

"We know of no occasion when you have received a mandate from the people of Texas to oppose the granting of civil rights to any group," the university chapter of the American veterans committee said in a letter to the governor.

The letter was signed by Jake Sorrels, Jr., of Abilene, chapter chairman.

Pres. Truman's civil rights program calls for federal anti-poll tax, anti-lynching and fair employment practices commission laws and abolition of segregation of minority groups.

Louis Hosek is ill at her home. She is employed with the Palace of Eats in Cameron.

E. A. Oliver, Jr. and wife of Port Lavaca are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oliver, Sr. of this city.

COKE STEVENSON HITS COMMUNISM

Ex-Gov. Coke Stevenson, speaking before a Dublin church meeting which he pointed out could not be held in any country dominated by Communists, Sunday night declared that the basic purpose of Communism is to destroy freedom.

Stevenson appeared before a union meeting of Dublin church congregations at the invitation of Rev. Mr. Oby Nelson, pastor of the Erath County town's First Baptist Church. The former governor, an announced candidate for the United States Senate, did not touch on politics in his address.

"The Communists realize they cannot survive if the people are taught the principles that Jesus brought to man on earth nearly two thousand years ago," Stevenson said. "They know that in any competition with God they are certain to lose. So they are against God. They are against religion."

"The Communists stand for the use, by any means of power over people. That is why they destroyed the churches in Russia, why they eliminated the lodges and fraternal organizations into military groups. They allow no human consideration to stand in the way of their unbridled lust for power.

"That is why you and I, and every God-fearing, freedom-loving man and woman, have no choice but to oppose vigorously and unrelentingly the efforts of Communists to gain a foothold in our country."
